ORDER:

The working of various CPWS Schemes (448) Supplying Water to 7611 habitations in the state across all the Districts have been discussed from time to time in the last few months with the Engineer-in-Chief and Chief Engineers at the State level and the field officers like Superintendent Engineers and Executive Engineers in the District wise review meetings. Based on the information and analysis thereof, different Chief Engineers were given the task of checking the functioning of the CPWS schemes in all the Districts. Based on such verifications and their discussions with the concerned S.Es & E,Es in the respective Districts, information has been compiled about different CPWS Schemes which are not functioning to their full designed capacity and thereby facing to supply water to all the habitations as per the original coverage originally planned. According to the compiled information, it has been observed that due to certain problems of design, execution or management corrective steps have to be taken to redress the problems faced by individual CPWS Scheme in fully catering to all the habitations intended for coverage.

2. Government, after careful consideration of the above information and further discussion thereon, hereby accord sanction for an amount of Rs.1744.15 lakhs(Rupees seventeen hundred forty four lakhs and fifteen thousand only) to be spent for rectifying the problems in 61 CPWS Schemes as given in the Annexure. The exact activity and the scope of the work will be indicated by the concerned Chief Engineer who visited the respective districts and compiled the information in this regard in discussion with the ENC. As this is an urgent item of work, the concerned CEs should ensure that this task is completed at the earliest and also they will continue to monitor and supervise it during the implementation phase of identified works for each of the CPWS Scheme. The said expenditure would be met from the non-plan budget under the following Head of Account:

“2215 – Water Supply and Sanitation
01 – Water Supply
196 - Assistance to Zilla Parishads
SH- 05 - Assistance to P.R Bodies for maintenance of CPWS Scheme.
270 - Minor Works
272 – Maintenance”
